New England Mutual Life Ins.,
Of Boston, Mass., Chartered in 1843, Capital and accumulation, $650,000.

THIS Company is one of the oldest, and among the most prudently and successfully conducted in the country. The primary object in conducting its business has been to provide perfect security under all conceivable circumstances, for the payment of its losses under its policies, and to return to the insured the surplus at stated periods, and strict economy is observed.

Every insured person is a member of the company and shares in the profits of the business, and is subject to no liability or assessments beyond his premium. The directors are required to be peculiarly interested in the company, and they give their personal attention; and bonds of sufficient security are given by its officers for the faithful performance of their duties. Insurance may be effected for the benefit of the wife, which is secured to her by law beyond the reach of a husband's creditors; and creditors may insure the lives of debtors.

WILLIAM PHILLIPS, President; B. F. STEVENS, Sec'y; CHAS. FULKER, Agent.

CHAS. C. CHENEY, Agent for the Northwest. 294

Highly Important to Farmers.
THE ONLY EXCLUSIVE FARMERS' INSURANCE COMPANY IN THE WEST.

THE MADISON MUTUAL,
LOCATED AT MADISON, WISCONSIN.

THIS Company continues to take risks upon Farm Property only, consisting of buildings of all kinds, (belonging to farmers,) household furniture, grain in barns, live stock, &c., from one to five years, at lower rates than most other responsible companies.

All losses promptly paid at the office as soon as proof is made thereon.

We believe it to be for the interest of the farmers to insure by themselves, their property being less hazardous than any other, consequently you will have no losses only your own of the same class, and all will be on an equal footing.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected positively, by LETTING THEM ALONE.

Farmers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to answer our premium notes, and for the last four months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

The best of references given as to the responsibility of the company.

CHIPS
CELEBRATED WORMWOOD CORDIAL.

THE subscriber in introducing this valuable temperance beverage, would respectfully call the attention of the public to the fact, that it is prepared from green Wormwood, an herb that grows luxuriantly in the New England States, the medicinal qualities of which, for the regulation of the stomach and blood, cannot be equalled by anything ever used. It is a sure cure and preventive of Fever, Ague, Dyspepsia, Diarrhea, and all diseases arising from impurities of the blood or inaction of the stomach. Try it.

THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE.

[Reported for the Janesville Gazette.]
Wisconsin Annual Conference of the M. E. Church.

THIRD DAY.

FRIDAY, Sept. 1st, 1854.
Conference convened at 8 o'clock, bishop Morris in the chair. The session was opened with reading the scriptures, singing, and prayer,
by Daniel Stansbury.

The minutes of yesterday's proceedings were read and corrected.

Rev. Thos. B. Brown, a transfer from the Black River conference, Rev. J. W. Watson, editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, Rev. Mr. Phillips, assistant book agent at New York, Rev. Mr. Johnson, late of the New Hampshire conference, and Rev. Mr. Washburn a venerable supernumerary of the New York East conference, were severally introduced to the conference.

Dr. Hinman, of Chicago, was introduced, and presented a report from the board of trustees of the North Western University, which, on motion, was referred to the committee on education.

Job B. Mills, who was, by a vote of yesterday, permitted to go before the committee of the 4th year for examination, was elected to elders orders.

The 3d question of the general minutes, viz:
who are admitted into full connection? was then taken up.

The following preachers, upon their names being called, came forward to the altar, and after a proper examination by the bishop before the conference, were received into full connection:
Edward B. Russell, Wm. Spell, A. C. Pennock,
P. B. Poase, George Fellows, Wm. Averill, Joseph Anderson, Enoch Tasker and L. M. Coch-ern.

Jabez Brooks declined being admitted into full connection, as he was not eligible; and he was continued on trial.

Wm. F. Delap, Wm. Rhobottom, and M.
Woodley being absent were continued on trial.
Robert Delap being absent, his case was laid over in prospect of his arrival before the close of this session of conference.

The case of Rev. Mr. Price, a Welch missionary, was laid over to give him an opportunity to go before the committee for examination. Rev.
Messrs. D. O. Jones and Owens were appointed said committee.

Rev. Mr. Requa was excused from serving on the committee for the 3d year, and A. H. Walter appointed in his place.

A call was then made for the missionary money collected within the bounds of the conference, which was readily responded to. The aggregate amount of the collections cannot now be stated; but, as to-night is the anniversary, a full report may be expected to-morrow. The amount, however, is doubtless much larger than that of any previous year.

On motion the conference then resolved itself into a conference Missionary Society, and proceeded to the election of officers for the ensuing year. T. M. Lohy, secretary of the society for last year, stated that a difficulty had existed heretofore in obtaining certificates of life membership of the Parent society, and that he could promise nothing respecting that matter at the present conference. Rev. Mr. Phillips gave assurance that a supply of certificates were on the way, and would certainly be at the seat of conference before its close. Rev. Wm. H.
Sampson was elected vice president of the Parent society. The society then adjourned.

Conference then took up the question who are the supernumerary preachers? The name of Hiram W. Frink was called, and he was continued in a supernumerary relation.

Conference next took up the question, who are the supernumerary preachers? The names of Henry R. Coleman, G. N. Hanson, J. G. Whitford, Jesse Halstead, and Wm. H. Sampson, were called, and their relation as supernumerary
preachers continued.

J. S. Prescott and Wm. H. Sampson were added to the committee on education.

Isaac Scarles presented the case of Gilbert
Delemater, a member of the Genesee conference,
and on motion his transfer to this conference
was requested.

Rev. Mr. Phillips, from the New York book concern, made a few remarks respecting the object of his visit to the conference.

The hour for adjournment having arrived,
the session was closed with the benediction by the bishop.

The anniversary of the tract society of the M. E. church was held last night, and it will not be out of place to state that the society was organized by calling Rev. A. Bronson to the chair and appointing Rev. C. Hobart secretary. Rev.
H. W. Frink, agent of the society, made a brief but interesting report; after which the president introduced Rev. S. Bolles, of Chicago, and Dr.
Jesse T. Peck, secretary of the general tract society, both of whom made able and eloquent speeches, which were very favorably received by the delighted audience. A liberal collection was then taken up, and a number of persons made life members of the society. After which the society adjourned. ELI C. JONES.
Conf. Reporter.

Some idea of the number of sheep that are kept in this section, may be formed from the fact that the carding works in this town have, up to this time, received packages for carding from about 800 different families.—
They have two of the largest and best kinds of carders in operation and are unable to keep up with their work, the number of bundles coming in daily, being on an increase rather than otherwise; the number of packages yet to come as must certainly amount to as great a sum as that already received.—Ripon Herald.

A PERIODICAL IN JANESVILLE!

"The Wisconsin Home,"

A Miscellaneous and Reformatory Journal, published the first and fifteenth of each month from and after the FIFTEENTH OF SEPTEMBER, 1854.

by Messrs. Buxton & Dorr, publishers and proprietors of the Janesville Free Press; and edited by Wm. M.
Dorr, of the above named firm.

Each No. of "The Wisconsin Home" will consist of EIGHT PAGES; making a sheet, in point of size, nearly the same as the "Scientific American." We shall reserve ONLY ONE COLUMN OF ADVERTISING for the purpose of publishing an occasional prospectus in addition to our own; leaving THIRTY-ONE COLUMNS OF READING MATTER.

One or two good stories will appear in each No., but none except those having a directly moral and beneficial tendency will be admitted into its columns. A short summary of passing events, and a few of the political grounds will be taken. As a better idea may be formed by seeing the article itself, the first No. will be furnished to all who wish to examine it, FREE OF CHARGE.

The terms of "The Wisconsin Home" will be ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR, payable half yearly in advance.
Subscription books now open.

Orders solicited early, especially for sample numbers, in order that we may know how large an edition will supply the demand. Address post-paid,
W. M. DOTT, Janesville, Wis.

* Papers giving the above one insertion and calling attention thereto cordially, will not only be entitled to an exchange, but to the thanks of the proprietor.

thanks to their numerous patrons for past favors,
and soliciting a continuance of the same, would respectfully inform the people of Central and Western Wisconsin, that they have now in store, and offer for sale, at the lowest cash prices, a larger and better selected stock of

Heavy and Shelf Hardware,

Bar Iron, Steel, Nails,

Stoves, &c.,

than can be found in any other establishment in the interior of the State.

The attention of Consumers and Country Dealers is particularly invited to our immense stock of

AMERICAN, ENGLISH REFINED & SWEDISH IRON,
CAST, GERMAN, ENGLISH & AMERICAN BLISTER, TOK CALK, SPRING, COIL & CAST PLOW STEEL,
of all sizes.

Also to the almost endless variety of superior

Carpenter, Joiner, Cooper, Blacksmith, Wagon-
making and Farming TOOLS,

House and Kitchen Sinks, Lead Pipe,
Cut and Wrought Nails and Spikes,
Tin Ware, Finner's Stock,
Belted and Japaned Ware,
Saws, Scissors, Razors, &c.

Our stock of

Cook and Parlor Stoves

was never larger than at present, and comprises some forty different patterns selected with great care, (having been previously fully tested in this market,) from several of the best manufacturers in Troy and Albany. Having bought our Stoves on long time, without interest,
and at a great discount, we are enabled to compete successfully with those who buy in small lots, "exclusively for cash," of which we will convince all who may give us a trial.

Our stock of

WHITE FURNITURE, STOVE PIPE, and all kinds of TIN WARE constantly on hand, or manufactured to order.

We are agents for the sale of Duryee & Forsyth's celebrated Fire Proof Safe and Platform and Counter Scales, and also for the sale of Yale's Magic Bank, Safe and Store Door Locks.

THE BLIND MAN'S WREATH.

"My boy, my poor blind boy?" This sorrowful exclamation broke from the lips of Mrs. Owen as she lay upon the couch to which, a long and wasting illness had confined her, and whence she well knew she was never more to rise.

Her son, the only child of her widowed mother, the sole object of her cares and affections, knelt beside her, his face bowed upon her pillow, for now only in a moment of solemn communion with his mother, had she revealed the fatal truth, and told him she must die! He had watched, and hoped and trembled for many weary months, but never yet had he admitted to himself the possibility of losing her; but faded cheek and sudden swoon could not reveal to him the progress of decay, and so long as the loved voice maintained its music to his ear, and chose him with the promise of improvement, so long as her hand still clasped his, he had hoped she would recover.

He had been blind since he was three years old; stricken by lightning, he had totally lost his sight. A dim remembrance of his widowed mother's face, her smoothly braided hair, and flowing white dress, was one of the few recollections entwined with the period before all became dark to him.

The boy grew up, tall, slender, delicate, with dark pensive eyes which bore no trace of the calamity that had destroyed their powers of vision; grave, though not sad; dreamy, enthusiastic, and requiring his mother's care with the deepest veneration and tenderness. In the first years of his childhood, and also whenever his education did not take them to London, and elsewhere, they had resided near a town on the sea-coast in one of the prettiest parts of England.

Independently of the natural kindness which very rarely fails to be shown towards any person who is blind, there was that about the widow and her son which invariably rendered them acceptable guests to their intellectual resources; and powers of conversation were equally diffused and uncommon. Mrs. Owen had studied much, in order to teach her son, and thus, by improving her natural abilities, had become a person of no common stamp; her intellectuality, however, being always subservient to, and fully shadowed by, the superior feminine attributes of love, gentleness, and sympathy; for Heaven had the woman in whom these gifts are not predominant over any mental endowment whatsoever!

When they walked out together, his mother took his arm, she was proud of this, he liked to fancy he was some support to her, and many playing eyes used to follow the figure of the widow in the black dress she constantly wore, and the tall son on whom she leaned confidently, as if striving with a sweet deception to convince him that he was indeed the staff of her declining strength. But gradually the mother's form grew bent, her step dragged wearily along, and the expression of her face indicated increasing weakness. The walks were at an end; and before long, she was too feeble to leave her bed, excepting to be carried to a summer parlor, where she lay upon a sofa, beside an open window, with flowers twining round the casement, and the warm sunshine filling all things with joy, save her foreboding heart and the anxious son who incessantly hung over her. Friends often came to visit them, and turned away with a deep sadness as they noted the progress of her malady, and heard the blind man ask whether they did not think her better—oh, surely a little better than when they had last beheld her!

Among all these, no friend was so welcome or brought such solace to the sick room as Mary Parker, a joyous girl of nineteen, one of those beauties of the country, and the admiration and delight of all who knew her. Mrs. Owen had danced Mary upon her knee, and Edward used to weave baskets and make garlands for her, when he was a boy of twelve, and she a little fairy of six years old or thereabouts, and beside him, praising his skill, and wondering how he could manage so cleverly, though blind. None of his childish companions ever led him so carefully as Mary, or seemed so much impressed with his mental superiority; she would leave those games of her play-mates, in which his blindness prevented him from joining, and would listen for hours to the stories which his memory was well stored, or which his own imagination enabled him to invent.

As she grew up, there was no change in the frank and confident nature of their intercourse. Mary still made him the recipient of her childish secrets, and plans, and dreams, just as she had done of her little griefs and joys in childhood; asked him to quote his favorite passages of poetry, or stationed herself near him as the piano, suggesting subjects for him to play, which he extemporized at her bidding. Bright and blooming as Mary was, the life of every party, beaming with animation and enjoyment, no attention was capable of rendering her unimpaired of him; and she was often known to sit out several dances in an evening to talk to dear Edward Owen, who would be sad if he thought himself neglected.

And now she daily visited the invalid; her buoyant spirits tempered by sympathy for her increasing sufferings, but still diffusing such an atmosphere of the sunshine and hope around her, that gloom and despondency seemed to vanish at her presence, Edward's sightless eyes were always raised to her bright face, as if he felt the magic influence it imparted.

His mother had noted all this with a mother's watchfulness, and on that day, when strong in love, she had undertaken to break to him the fact which all others shrank from communicating, she spoke likewise of Mary, and of the vague wild hope she had always cherished of one day seeing her his wife.

"No, mother, no!" exclaimed the blind man. "Dearest mother, in this you are not true to yourself! What! Would you wish to see her in all her spring of youth and beauty sacrificed to such a one as I—to see Mary as you have described her to me, as my soul tells me she is, tied down to be the guide, and leader, and support of one who could not make one step in her defence; whose helplessness, alone in the eyes of men, would be his means of sheltering and protecting her! Would you hear her pined—our bright Mary pined—as a blind man's wife, mother?"

"But Edward—if she loves you, as I am sure she does—"

"Love me, mother! Yes, as angels love mortals, as a sister loves a brother, as you love me! And for this benighted love, this tender sympathy, I could kneel and kiss the ground she treads upon; but beyond this—were you to entreat her to marry your blind and solitary son, and she in pity answered yes—would I accept her on such terms, and rivet the chains she has consented to assume? Oh mother, mother, I have not studied you in vain, your life has been one long self-sacrifice; its silent teaching shall bear fruit! Do not grieve so bitterly for me. God was very merciful in giving me such a mother; let us trust him for the future!"

Ah, poor tortured heart, speaking so bravely forth, striving to cheer the mother's falling spirit, when all to him was dark, dark, dark! She raised herself upon her pillow, and wound her weak arms about his neck, and listened to the expressions of ineffable love, and faith, and consolation, which her son found strength to utter, to sustain her soul. Yes, in that hour, her recompense had begun; in loneliness, in secret tears, with Christian patience, and endeavor, with an exalted and faithful spirit had she sown; and in death she reaped her high reward.

They had been silent for some minutes, and she lay back exhausted, but composed, while he sat beside her, holding her hand in his, fancying she slept, and anxiously listening to her breathing, which seemed more than usually oppressed. A rustling was heard amid the flowers at the window, and a bright young face looked in.

"Hush!" said Edward, recognizing the step, "hush, Mary she is asleep!"

The color and the smiles alike passed from Mary's face when she glided into the room. "Oh Edward, Edward, she is very ill!"

"Mary! darling Mary!" said the dying lady, with difficulty rousing herself; "I have had such a pleasant dream; but I have slept too long. It is night! Let them bring candles. Edward, I cannot see you now."

Night, and the stars so brightly shining! The shadows of the grave were stealing fast upon her. Other steps now sounded in the room, and many faces gathered round the couch; but the blind man heard nothing—was conscious of nothing, save the painful labored respiration, the tremulous hand that fluttered in his own, the broken sentences.

"Edward, my dearest, take comfort. I have hope. God is indeed merciful!"

"Oh Edward, do not grieve so sadly! It breaks my heart to see you cry so. For her sake be calm—for my sake too!" Mary knelt down beside him, and endeavored to soothe the voiceless anguish which it terrified her to witness.

Another interval, when no sound broke the stillness that prevailed; and again Mrs. Owen opened her eyes, and saw Mary kneeling by Edward's side. They were associated with the previous current of her thoughts, and a smile lighted up her face.

"As I wished, as I prayed to die! My children both. Kiss me, Mary, my blessing, my consolation! Edward, nearer, nearer! Child of so many hopes and prayers—all answered now!" And with her bright vision unclouded, her rejoicing soul took wing, and knew sorrow and tears no more.

Four months had passed since Mrs. Owen's death, her son was still staying at Woodlands, the residence of Mary's father, Col. Parker, at about two miles distant from Edward Owen's solitary home; hither had he been prevailed upon to remove, after the first shock of his grief had subsided.

Colonel and Mrs. Parker were kind hearted people, and the peculiar situation of Edward Owen appealed to their best feelings, so they made no opposition to their children devoting themselves unceasingly to him, and striving by every innocent device, to render his affliction less poignant and oppressive. But kind as all the family were, still all the family were as nothing compared to Mary, who was always anxious to accompany him in his walks, seemed jealous of her privilege as his favorite reader, and claimed to be his silent watchful companion; when, too, sad even to take an interest in what she read, he leaned back wearily in his chair, and felt the soothing influence of her presence. As time wore on, and some of his old pursuits resumed their attractions for him, she used to listen for hours as he played upon the piano. She would sit near him with her work, proposing subjects for his skill, as her old custom had been; or she would beg him to give her a lesson in executing a difficult passage, and rendering it with due feeling and expression. In the same way, with their readings, which gradually were carried on with more regularity and interest, she appeared to look upon herself as the person obliged, appealed to his judgment, and deferred to, his opinion without any consciousness of the future she underwent, or the service she was rendering.

The Washington Sentinel, one of president Pierce's organs, urges all true democrats, the supporters of the Nebraska bill, to oppose to their utmost the restoration of the Missouri compromise.

From its birth-day to the present time the democratic party has claimed to be, and always has been the state rights party of the country. In 1820 they manfully fought against the worse than infamous principle contained in the misnamed Missouri compromise; in 1850 they were found fighting on the side of the rights of the states, securing the passage of the fugitive slave law; and in 1854, the crowning glory of the state rights party shone out in their manly repudiation of the Missouri compromise.

The Sentinel, winds up by calling all who opposed the late repeal of the Missouri compromise, "maddened mobs clamorous for vengeance." In the list of proscribed are included all the opponents, democrats as well as whigs.—Grant County Herald.

Yes, and the electors in Wisconsin, will in a short time be told by those who have all along supported the Nebraska outrage, that it is not now a test of democracy—that they, too, are opposed to slavery extension.

The repeal of the Missouri compromise was a measure of the democratic party at Washington as the vote abundantly shows. It has been endorsed by all the leaders of the party (office holders) throughout the country; and not until they feared the results of the measure when left to the people's decision, did they haul down their pro-slavery Nebraska colors. We believe that those leaders of the democratic party who are so clamorous in abusing the people's move for liberty, would persevere in "crushing out" the friends of freedom, as effectually as Caleb Cushing did, if they thought that they had the power to accomplish it.—Monroe Sentinel.

WAR APPROPRIATIONS FOR AGRICULTURE.—Congress, at session just terminated, appropriated upwards of $27,000,000 of the money of the people. We are at peace with all the world; yet between $24,000,000 and $25,000,000 of this sum have been devoted to the public defense—say the army, $10,375,000; for the navy, $9,851,000; for West Point, $140,000; for building steam war vessels, $3,000,000; while for agricultural purposes there was not appropriated not one solitary cent! Yet every body knows that a large number of the tax-payers who contributed to this sixty-seven millions, are agriculturists; and congress must have been sensible of the vast amount of public good that might have been attained, by devoting even an exceedingly moderate sum, comparatively speaking, to the improvement of agriculture!—Chicago Press.

The New York Theatre, just erected on the site of the Metropolitan, is to be opened on the 12th of Sept. It is said to be the most superb theatre on this side of the Atlantic, and fully equal, if not superior, in size to any Europe can produce, whilst in point of decoration and luxurious accommodation it will excel them! There will be seats for something like four thousand persons, with standing room for something like two thousand more. The parquette alone will be at fourteen hundred persons, and is the largest of any theatre in the world. The stage has a frontage of ninety feet, and a depth of sixty.

The Daily Gazette.

JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN.
SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 2, 1854.

It does seem to us that the claims of common decency would dictate to the Milwaukee Sentinel that it should quote enough from a contemporary to give its readers something of an idea of the real position of those whose views it professes to give. Yet that is a claim we seldom see recognized in the columns of our Milwaukee neighbor. If there is the least chance of perverting an argument, or misrepresenting an opponent, by omitting a part where the whole should be copied, or giving, without a pretended quotation, its own version, the Sentinel is fully up to the trick. This mode of warfare may be accounted sharp with some, but is regarded as disreputable with most.

The last, but by no means the only, exhibition of this practice towards us, is where it copies yesterday a portion of our comments upon the communication of "One of 'em," published Thursday, complaining of a want of facilities on the Milwaukee road to carry off the freight accumulating at the depot in this city. To show how our immaculate friend treats those with whom he disagrees, or has a disposition to misrepresent, we will give the portion of our comments, quoted by him, and then append that part omitted. The portion quoted is as follows, and for fear that the inference intended to be drawn from the garbled extract should not be sufficiently indicated, this extract is prefaced with the remark that "the Gazette, as its correspondent, seems to think that this arises from a desire, on the part of the company, to drive business from Janesville."

"As to the imputed attempt to drive business from Janesville to the line of the road north, we are told that it has been repeatedly asserted here by persons from the neighborhood of other stations, that such a determination has been avowed by individuals connected with the road. If such is not to be the policy of the company, we think it would be well to give a more authoritative denial than the disbelieve of the Sentinel."

The part omitted is as follows, and by referring to the article entire in the Gazette it will be seen that even a sentence is broken: that the favorite practice of the Sentinel may be indulged in.

"For it is a fact that reports of the character alluded to are in circulation and have obtained credence with some from the recent events on the road. We know nothing of the matter ourselves, and should have made no allusion to it if our correspondent had not neglected or overlooked it. We refer to it that an injurious report may be corrected if it is unfounded."

The opinion of the editors of the Gazette was not expressed as to the truth or falsity of the reports alluded to, and the sole object of alluding to the matter at all was to get a contradiction from somebody whose word would be regarded as worth something where they were circulating. The simple disbelief of the Sentinel amounted to nothing, for its utter absorption in the Milwaukee and Mississippi road would not allow it to believe, or if it did believe, admit that anything but the most disinterested magnanimity exists among its directory, and nothing but the most barefaced rascality out of it.

We have referred to this matter at a greater length than its intrinsic value demands, but as it illustrates a general habit of a paper which assumes a leading position in the state, and which has repeatedly been played upon us, its exposure is justified at any time. When the new movement at Madison again brought us together, and removed from the field of discussion the political sins of the Sentinel, and time was likely to heal other causes of difference between us, we really hoped we should be able to live on good terms with our Milwaukee contemporary, and shall yet be able to do so; if it will cease a practice that seems almost a second nature.

CORRECTION.—We learn that an error occurred in our report of the 3d ward democratic caucus. Anxious to mete out even-handed justice to even our opponents, we now state that the non-resident only seconded the motions put to the meeting, his right to make them being denied. The secretary performed the principal duty.

Harper for September has been received at Sutherland's.

The Janesville Free Press says there are three whigs in Rock county who adhere to the old whig organization.—Free Dem.

And might have added not one who adheres to the old free soil organization.—Janesville Gazette.

Which is very much to their credit, as it shows that they are ready to give up their name and party organization for the sake of forming a union of all free men, to preserve the liberties of the country.—Free Dem.

We shall not disagree with the Free Democrat as to the credit to be given to the free-soilers in this county for their hearty co-operation in a practicable movement to overthrow the Pierce and Nebraska democracy. Thus far we have no reason to find fault with the spirit or action which has characterized them. If the same forbearance and concession shall be observed throughout, which has thus far been manifested by all who endorse the movement, the only disturbing cause which any have feared will be happily avoided. We referred to the Democrat's first paragraph because we thought it was intended as a fling at the old whig organization, and designed to show that if that organization was abandoned, the free soil party had no cause of triumph.

Mrs. Emeline Moore, who was accidentally killed at the Fulton station, night before last, resided some eight miles from Stoughton, and was returning from a visit to Waubesa. She was not bruised, and had no bones broken. It is probable that the fall and the fright was the cause of her death.—Free Dem.

Mrs. Moore, we learn since announcing her death, lived in the town of Rutland, Dane Co.

ARRIVAL OF THE WASHINGTON.—The steamship Washington arrived at New York on Thursday at one o'clock. A private despatch to the Milwaukee Sentinel says:

Latest Markets.—Flour closed heavy. Wheat declined three pence. Bomarsund surrendered. Two thousand Russians prisoners. Crimea expedition progressing. Austria occupying Wallachia.

The general report of the news is as follows:

Lord John Russell had stated in parliament that a communication had been made by the Czar to Austria, that it was his intention to evacuate the Principalities. The Austrian ministers had intimated to the ministers of England and France that his government was nevertheless ready to interchange notes, as previously agreed upon, with the view of obtaining security for future peace. It remained to be seen whether Austria would put her armies in action to obtain security, if it could not be obtained by negotiation.

The Queen's speech at prorogation of parliament, in reference to the war in the east, was temperate and firm. Bucharest was occupied by ten thousand Turks. The French ambassador at Madrid had been threatened by the populace. Mr. Buchanan was present at the prorogation of parliament. Trade in Canton showed symptoms of improvement; excess in the exports of tea compared with the same date of last year, was estimated at 210 million pounds. The British bark Sopas, with 350 California-bound passengers, was lost in Paolo Shoals—no passengers lost. Confidence at Hong Kong had been restored. Pirates still abound in the Canton river.

ANOTHER ENTHUSIASTIC CAUCUS.—The democratic caucus of the 4th ward to appoint delegates to the conventions to name delegates to Mineral Point was attended, we learn on good authority, by five persons. It was held at the school house formerly used as the Methodist church, with a view, as some maliciously represent, to entrap some stray members of the conference now in session; but we cannot endorse such a conclusion. None of the members of that highly respectable body favor Nebraska locofocoism. Like its brother of the 8d ward, this caucus did not go outside of its own body for delegates, and its selections were made from its own members.

The Albany Atlas of the 24th says by actual computation there is found to be less flour in their market than there has been for years. It notices the rising price of the article.

VERMONT.—Ex-senator Phelps of Vermont, who was one of the original supporters of the compromise, "fugitive slave law and all," and lost his election to the senate for the succeeding term in consequence, made a speech at the late district convention which re-nominated Mr. Meacham for congress, in which he denounced the Nebraska outrage as "unfortunate, ill-judged, childish and foolish," and said that it had done more to create discord and foment fatal jealousies than all that had ever occurred in the history of the government. This act of congress annulling the compromise of 1820, said Mr. Phelps, tends directly to break up the Union and overthrow the government. He earnestly hoped that the people would lay aside all minor squabbles, leaving questions of morals to be cared for in a moral way, and unite with the great national party of liberty, and secure freedom to territory not yet cursed with slavery.—Free Dem.

DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—We were shown yesterday by Mr. Haley a bill purporting to be a 6 dollar note of the Columbia County bank, at Portage City, in this state. It is a dangerous counterfeit, not because it is like the genuine, for it is entirely unlike the genuine—but because the bank is a new one, and counterfeiters are not looked for.

The genuine bill shows the capital of the bank to be $25,000, and the notes are signed by Sam'l Marshall, pres't, and H. S. Haskell, cash'r, and countersigned by A. Menges, dep. comptroller. A "5," large, and printed in red, is seen length-wise of the genuine bill.

The counterfeit was sent here in a package of money from Chicago, and appears to be altered from bills issued at Washington. A line at the top represents its issues to be secured by $100,000-Pennsylvania bonds, and it is signed by G. C. King, cash'r, and B. O. Stone, pres't, and countersigned F. F. Horton, treasurer.

EXTRAORDINARY DEATH.—The Buffalo Democracy relates a singular occurrence which took place a few days since, in the town of Hamburg, in Erie county, N. Y. An Irishman was engaged in digging a well and after getting down to the depth of some eighteen or twenty feet, found signs of water very perceptible. At last he struck his pick through a thin layer of slate, when all at once, and with a noise like thunder, sufficiently loud to be distinctly heard all over the neighborhood, a stream of mingled gas and water burst through the orifice instantly killing the unfortunate man, and filling the well to the depth of some 12 feet with water.

For the information of the Independent African, and others, we would say in reference to the call of "many citizens," for a mass convention at Lancaster on the 6th September, that the call was made as it purports, by many citizens. The day was not agreed on, though the call was, by more names and letters than we had room to print. It was thought best by those we consulted to fix on the 6th of September. The American predicts truly, "there will probably be a large turn out."—Grant Co. Herald.

There is not a solitary newspaper in all the city of New York, which sustains the administration. The True Democrat was the last to leave the party, which it did a few days ago. This city gave Pierce eleven thousand majority.

The undersigned has been duly appointed Agent of the above named companies, and is now prepared to take risks and issue policies upon all kinds of insurable property at the lowest rates of premium.

Experience has shown that two-thirds, if not three-fourths of all the fires that occur are upon stores, taverns, mills, shops and such like property. In this company all such property is rejected positively, by law, and the insured is not allowed to insure in it.

Formers, look to your own interest, and insure in a Farmers' Company.

We have been doing business a little over three years, and we have not been obliged to assess our premium notes, and for the last fourteen months we have not had a single dollar loss, though doing a large and prosperous business, which we believe to be without a parallel in the history of insurance.

THE JANESVILLE GAZETTE.

[Reported for the Janesville Gazette.]
Wisconsin Annual Conference of the M. E. Church.

THIRD DAY.
 FRIDAY, Sept. 1st, 1854.

Conference convened at 8 o'clock, bishop Morris in the chair. The session was opened with reading the scriptures, singing, and prayer, by Daniel Stansbury.

The minutes of yesterday's proceedings were read and corrected.

Rev. Thos. B. Brown, a transfer from the Black river conference, Rev. J. W. Watson, editor of the Northwestern Christian Advocate, Rev. Mr. Phillips, assistant book agent at New York, Rev. Mr. Johnson, late of the New Hampshire conference, and Rev. Mr. Washburn a venerable superannuate of the New York East conference, were severally introduced to the conference.

Dr. Hinman, of Chicago, was introduced, and presented a report from the board of trustees of the North Western University, which, on motion, was referred to the committee on education.

Job B. Mills, who was, by a vote of yesterday, permitted to go before the committee of the 4th year for examination, was elected to elders orders.

The 3d question of the general minutes, viz: who are admitted into full connection? was then taken up.

The following preachers, upon their names being called, came forward to the altar, and after a proper examination by the bishop before the conference, were received into full connection: Edward B. Russell, Wm. Spell, A. C. Pennock, P. B. Pease, George Fellows, Wm. Averill, Joseph Anderson, Enoch Tasker and L. M. Cochran.

Jabez Brooks declined being admitted into full connection, as he was not eligible; and he was continued on trial.

Wm. F. Delap, Wm. Rhobottom, and M. Woodley being absent, his case was laid over in prospect of his arrival before the close of this session of conference.

The case of Rev. Mr. Price, a Welch missionary, was laid over to give him an opportunity to go before the committee for examination. Rev. Messrs. D. O. Jones and Owens were appointed said committee.

Rev. Mr. Requa was excused from serving on the committee for the 3d year, and A. H. Walter appointed in his place.

A call was then made for the missionary money collected within the bounds of the conference, which was readily responded to. The aggregate amount of the collections cannot now be stated; but, as to-night is the anniversary, a full report may be expected to-morrow. The amount, however, is doubtless much larger than that of any previous year.

On motion the conference then resolved itself into a conference Missionary Society, and proceeded to the election of officers for the ensuing year. T. M. Leiby, secretary of the society for last year, stated that a difficulty had existed heretofore in obtaining certificates of life membership of the Parent society, and that he could promise nothing respecting that matter at the present conference. Rev. Mr. Phillips gave assurance that a supply of certificates were on the way, and would certainly be at the seat of conference before its close. Rev. Wm. H. Sampson was elected vice president of the Parent society. The society then adjourned.

Conference then took up the question who are the superannuated preachers? The name of Hiram W. Frink was called, and he was continued in a superannuated relation.

Conference next took up the question, who are the superannuated preachers? The names of Henry R. Coleman, G. N. Hanson, J. G. Whitford, Jesse Halstead, and Wm. H. Sampson, were called, and their relation as superannuated preachers continued.

J. S. Prescott and Wm. H. Sampson were added to the committee on education.

Isaac Seales presented the case of Gilbert Delemater, a member of the Genesee conference, and on motion his transfer to this conference was requested.

Rev. Mr. Phillips, from the New York book concern, made a few remarks respecting the object of his visit to the conference.

The hour for adjournment having arrived, the session was closed with the benediction by the bishop.

The anniversary of the tract society of the M. E. church was held last night, and it will not be out of place to state that the society was organized by calling Rev. A. Bronson to the chair and appointing Rev. C. Hobart secretary. Rev. H. W. Frink, agent of the society, made a brief but interesting report; after which the president introduced Rev. S. Bolles, of Chicago, and Dr. Jesse T. Peck, secretary of the general tract societies, both of whom made able and eloquent speeches, which were very favorably received by the delighted audience. A liberal collection was then taken up, and a number of persons made life members of the society. After which the society adjourned. ELIC JONES.

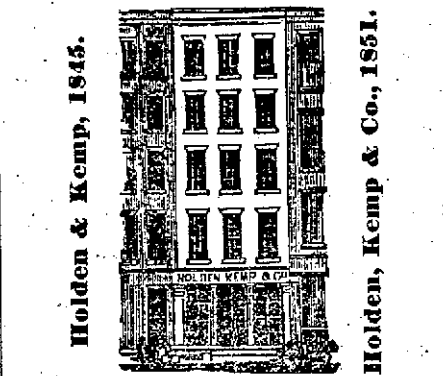

Conf. Reporter.

Some idea of the number of sheep that are kept in this section, may be formed from the fact that the carding works in this town have, up to this time, received packages for carding from about 800 different families. They have two of the largest and best kinds of carders in operation and are unable to keep up with their work, the number of bundles coming in daily, being on an increase rather than otherwise; the number of packages yet to come in must certainly amount to as great a sum as that already received.—Ripon Herald.

A PERIODICAL IN JANESVILLE!

"The Wisconsin Home,"

A Miscellaneous and Reformatory Journal, will be printed on the first and fifteenth of each month from and after the FIFTEENTH OF SEPTEMBER, 1854, by Messrs. BAKER & DORR, publishers and proprietors of the Janesville Free Press; and edited by Wm. M. Dorr, of the above named firm.

Each No. of "The Wisconsin Home" will consist of EIGHT PAGES, making a sheet, in point of size, nearly the same as the "Scientific American." We shall reserve ONLY ONE COLUMN OF ADVERTISING for the purpose of publishing an occasional prospectus in addition to our own; leaving THIRTY-ONE COLUMNS OF READING MATTER.

One of two good stories will appear in each No. But except those having a directly moral and beneficial tendency will be admitted into its columns. A short summary of passing events will be given; but no political grounds will be taken. As a better idea may be formed by seeing the article itself, the first No. will be furnished to all who wish to examine it, FREE OF CHARGE.

The Terms of "The Wisconsin Home" will be ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR, payable half yearly in advance. Subscriptions close now.

Orders solicited early, especially for sample numbers, in order that we may know how large an edition will supply the demand. Address post-paid, to Wm. M. DORR, Janesville, Wis.

*Papers giving the above one insertion and calling attention thereto editorially, will not only be entitled to an exchange, but to the thanks of the proprietor. au2

a mild,

Some idea of the number of sheep that are kept in this section, may be formed from the fact that the carding works in this town have, up to this time, received packages for carding from about 800 different families. They have two of the largest and best kinds of carders in operation and are unable to keep up with their work, the number of bundles coming in daily, being on an increase rather than otherwise; the number of packages yet to come in must certainly amount to as great a sum as that already received.—Ripon Herald.

SOLOMON LER'S VERMIN DE-STROYER—a new thing—without fail in every infestation for rats, mice, roaches, ants, and other vermin infesting houses, barns, gardens, fields, &c. The articles which compose this composition are in themselves
very innocent, and contain not a particle of poison, but when combined create a gas which expels the vermin and destroys life in a few hours. As soon as the stomach is affected the vermin become restless and will affect nothing thereafter, so that there can be no danger in its use under any circumstances. Two

MURRY'S FLUID MAGNESIA, a mild, safe and elegant anti-acid aperient, possessing all the properties of the magnesia in general but more effectually cures heart-burn without injuring the coats of the stomach. It prevents the food of infants turning sour, and in all cases acts as a pleasant aperient peculiarly adapted for females. For sale by asking or selling prices.

CROCKERY.
In this department they possess unusual facilities, being Importers of Common, Printed and Ironstone Liverpool Ware, and are now receiving in Store, and design to maintain, a Stock capable of fully supplying this Market.
Their Ware will be warranted of UNIFORM AND THE BEST MANUFACTURE, and not Mixed Crockery of all makes, re-packed in this country—the usual assortment of those not exclusively in that trade. Their best WHITE CRYSTAL IRONSTONE
is universally admitted by Importers as entirely superior to all other ware in durability, enamel and beauty of shape, which, however, they will sell at less prices
than inferior wares can be afforded in this State.
GLASS WARE in endless variety purchased directly from factories.

ceiving incomparably the largest assortment of CARPETINGS
ever seen in Central Wisconsin. Please look at them.
Also, OIL CLOTHS, from 3 to 5 quarts inclusive.
MATTINGS—Plain and Checked, Druggists.
LOOKING GLASSES of every size and style, invaluable in price and reflection.
Lace and Gilt Bedsteads, Gilt Frames,
Gilt Cornices and Curtain Loops,
Iron Hat Stands, &c.
They also keep for sale at lowest Cash prices a full assortment of
GROCERIES, LEATHER and FINDINGS,
FEATHER and SHOE
Self Hardware, Tin Ware,
Wholesale Ware, Stone Ware,
Having Tools, Furniture, &c., &c.
THE ONE PRICE CASH SYSTEM, originally introduced into this community and widely adhered to by this Establishment, has won for it a reputation for more valuable than the Stupendous Self-puffings, quarterly renewed, industriously circulated but universally discredited, which many modern shopkeepers deem indispensable to success.
The system will of course be continued—a limiting no variation or improvement—to the satisfaction undoubtedly of a large and most desirable class of customers, although to the sacrifice probably of the money gain of some of the more vulgar and those who follow the belief that all Salerooms will cheat them if possible.
Respectfully,
JANESVILLE, June 24th, 1854. COOLEY & BABCOCK. 42

GREAT SALE OF REAL ESTATE!
Rare Chance for Investment!
600 Village Lots!
THE undersigned offers at private sale
SIX HUNDRED VILLAGE LOTS, situated in "Hickory Glen" and "Pixley & Shaw's" addition to Janesville, and bounded by the Milwaukee and Milwaukee and Mississippi railroad depot, in the city of Janesville.
The above property is but a short distance from the present business center of the thriving city of Janesville, and towards which, through the influence of the various railroads, in operation and projected, the business of the city is fast finding its way.
It is unnecessary to speak of the peculiar advantages of an investment in property so centrally located in the largest inland city of the State of Wisconsin, a city so widely known for its thrift and business prosperity, possessing extensive water-power and surrounded by the best farming country in the world—as every one at once can see, and the progress of western cities will see at once these advantages.
The above property is offered at very low rates, and on the most favorable terms, particularly to those who wish to make immediate improvements on purchases.
Also, 1,000 Acres of the Best Improved Farming Lands, situated within a few miles of the city, which will be sold in lots to suit purchasers, from 10 to 32 1/2 acres.
For particulars enquire of the undersigned at "Pix-ley & Kimball's Hardware Store," or of THOMAS SHAW, at the corner of Third and Exchange streets.

Janesville Clothing Emporium.
WM. ADDY,
Merchant Tailor, & Dealer in Ready Made Clothing
and Gentlemen's Furnishing Goods.
HAS received his Spring and Summer STOCK, consisting of the very latest and fashionable CLOTHS, CASIMERES, DOCKINGS and VES-TINGS, of English, French and American manufacture.
This Establishment is now, as usual, the favorite place of resort for the fashionable, the Cutting Department still being under my own personal supervision, and warranted to suit the most difficult taste, at twenty per cent lower than any other establishment in the State.
You will ask how I can do this; I will tell you: From my long experience in this business, and being a practical Tailor, I know when, where and how to buy my Goods, what to pay for them, and how cut them, not only to secure the service of an outfit fitted, at a salary of $1,000 to $1,500 a year, which the purchaser must pay for this is the secret. I have got on hand a good assortment of
of my own manufacture, and warranted in every respect. Call and examine, before you buy elsewhere.

JOSEPH A. WOOD & CO.,
Sign of the Padlock.
THE SUBSCRIBERS, thankful for the liberal patronage extended to them during the past year,
would respectfully inform the people of Wisconsin,
that they have received the LARGEST AND BEST SELEC- TED STOCK OF
Hardware, Iron, Steel,
Nails, Glass, Stoves, &c., ever offered in Janesville.
Among our stock of IRON and STEEL may be found the following, which will draw the attention of Blacksmiths, Wagon-Makers and Machinists.
Best American Refined Iron all sizes.
"English Refined, do do."
"Swedish, do do."
Rills, and American Horse Shoe Iron, all sizes.
Norway Nail Rods, best quality.
Sanderson's Cast Steel, all sizes and shapes.
The Cook Stove.
English Spring Steel.
Plow Steel, 4 to 10 inches wide.
Also, Anvils, Vices, Bellows, Tumbler Skins, Files,
Barns, Screw Mills, Sledges, Hammers, &c.
We also have a natural examination of our large and varied assortment of Carpenters' & Joiners' & Coopers' Tools.
Purchased direct from the Manufacturer, consisting in part of the very best makes of Planing, Shaving, and other Machinery.
Cast Steel Chisels of all kinds,
Augers and Auger Bits, Brace and Bits,
Tread Axes, Adzes, Hammer, Steel Squares, Try Squares, and made of the best materials. Having paid cash for all our stores at time of purchase, and thereby obtaining a great discount, we are prepared to sell at much LOWER PRICES,
than those who try to compete with us.
We manufacture
Tin, Sheet Iron & Copper Ware,
and always have a large assortment on hand.
Persons at a distance favoring us with their orders, may rest assured that we will attend to them to the best of our ability.
Having had thirteen years experience in this branch of trade, and being connected with a large Importing House in New York, we can offer greater inducements than any other establishment here.

I AM now receiving one of the largest and finest stocks of Boots and Shoes that I have ever before brought to Janesville, and what is finer than all the rest, I can sell them at lower prices than I have ever sold before, notwithstanding the great advance in the cost of the material.
Ladies Fine Shoes.
In particular I have a beautiful variety, cannot be equaled in the State, both for style and durability, being all made to order, and in such a manner that I can warrant every article I sell, with the understanding at all times, that if they do not come up to the warrant,
they shall be changed.
GENTLEMEN'S WEAR.
In this line I know beyond a doubt that I can show you a finer assortment of Boots and Shoes at prices by twenty per cent lower than can be found at any of the shoe shops or Dry Goods stores about town. I want it distinctly understood that I make the BOOT AND SHOE
